

Easter Vigil
4th April 2026

This evening's readings encapsulate for us so much that the scriptures have to tell us about God. Those stories of creation, liberation, promise and renewal speak of a God who brings life out of chaos; freedom out of slavery and hope out of despair.

And now, in the darkness, we have lit a new fire to remind us of the God who brings light out of darkness.

This is the story not just of what God has done, but of what God is still doing.

So perhaps the question for us tonight is this. Where do you need that light? And can you trust that it is already beginning; that God is already right there, loving you, and longing for you to see those signs of light and hope.
